How did I do?
Great work

What impact did I make?
Positive contribution. Looked for solutions when necessary and succeeded within the scope of the project. If Soumik had been given adequate tools he would have soared even higher on this project than requested. Top shelf.

How did I make use of my skills and strengths?
Leveraged python when necessary and delegated tasks that were outside of your set of skills. Soumik communicated effectively by raising concerns and providing updates on a regular cadence.

What can I do to continue to grow?
Grow your breadth of tools in order to integrate more effectively. You are performing at a high level. Keep it up.

Meenakshi Karnam

Did I achieve what was expected of me?
Yes you met the expectation.

What are my most notable achievements and what can I improve?
- Soumik helped the team in analyzing different platforms in AI and RPA domain.
- He participated in PPA activities pro-actively and also shared his ideas along with other team members in AI Hackathon
- His communication skill is very good
- Since your core skill is Python, try to gain more expertise in that area and also it's usages in AI domains so that you can contribute more in building different use-cases

What am I ready for next and what do I need to do to get there?
Work on your technical skills and try to gain more expertise to deliver more towards team's objective.

If you have any additional notes or comments for me, enter them here.

EMPLOYEE PROFILE OF THE DAY

MR. ASSIDUOUS

SOUMIK

ACADEMIC SCREENER

Soumik started as an instructor in April and quickly joined the Instructor sourcing team in May as an Academic Screener. He starts his day with motivational videos on youtube and videos on improving his own interviewer skills.

Soumik's work on an average day involves taking final rounds of the interviews of the instructors. While taking an interview, he gets to know more about the person and always maintains an empathetic approach and answer all questions the candidate may have to the best of his abilities.

He also teaches students from grades 4-12, with his specialty being AI. Soumik believes logical aptitude is essential and usually imbibes that in his classes.

When a candidate is looking for a job, and when Soumik offers them one, the candidate's happiness parallels nothing else for Soumik and feels it's the favourite part of his job. He is also a movie buff and chocolate lover. Soumik's positive attitude and ability to hire unmatched talent is why he remains an indispensable part of Camp K12.
